FLORENCE, S.C. - The Armstrong Atlantic State University softball squad split a pair of games in Sunday's action at the Francis Marion University Patriot Invitational to finish the weekend with a 4-1 mark. The Pirates shut out Brevard, 7-0, but dropped a tough 1-0 decision to No. 14-ranked Lenoir-Rhyne.

Against the Tornado, the Pirates jumped out to a quick 2-0 lead in the first inning as Erin Billingsley doubled, then Baillie Temples launched a two-run home run. Billingsley added her own home run with a solo shot in the third and finished the game with a pair of hits and two RBIs. The win was the 200th for head coach Ted Evans, who is now 200-136 in his seventh season as head coach of the Pirate softball squad.

Shelby Duff (4-2) picked up the victory for the Pirates in the circle, giving up just four hits and no runs while walking two and striking out four.

The Pirates then faced off against the No. 14-ranked Bears, and the only run of the game was scored in the third inning as a walk, then back-to-back two-out singles by Jody Mizelle and Carlee Carpenter brought home the only run of the game for Lenoir-Rhyne.

Megan Barnwell (11-2) suffered the hard-luck loss for the Pirates, giving up just the two hits and one run in seven innings of work, walking two and striking out 15.

Armstrong returns to action on Tuesday, March 15, facing Mid America Nazarene at the SCAD Smash Hit Tournament at the Paulsen Complex in Savannah in a Noon doubleheader.
